Montclair State in Your Neighborhood: Philadelphia and LA

With more than 125,000 alumni living in all 50 states and worldwide, the Office of Alumni Relations at Montclair State University hosts events across the country to give alumni a chance to connect and network with others in their neighborhood. You already have one thing in common: Montclair State! It's all about connections, and your connection to Montclair State University lasts a lifetime. As part of an ongoing initiative to create a network among Montclair State graduates in New Jersey, New York, Florida, Philadelphia, and the West Coast, our goal is to bring Montclair State engagement opportunities to these regions. It's Back to the Future for Montclair State's Iconic College Hall

For more than a century, College Hall has been the iconic face of Montclair State University. When it opened its doors as New Jersey State Normal School at Montclair in September 1908, the Mission Revival building not only housed the entire school, but it also immediately established a lasting identity for the fledgling institution. This signature style defines the Montclair State campus to this day. [\[View full story\]](#)

Last year, we raised the bar for our second ever Giving Day. We had big goals, and you helped us exceed them! Over 300 donors came together to raise over $40,000 in support of Montclair State University. Now that we've seen what you can do, we're ready to launch this year's Giving Day! On April 19, the Montclair State community will come together to support Montclair State students. Be sure to save the date and help us continue our success from last year. We need you to help us raise even more this year! Every gift, from every donor, counts! Can you help us reach our goal of 350 donors? To celebrate our 110-year history, our goal is to welcome 110 new donors to our proud family of supporters. Keep an eye out for emails, social media messages, and more leading up to and throughout April 19. Can't wait to give? Make a gift online today in support of Giving Day. [\[View full details\]](#)

Women's Basketball Team's Run Ends in NCAA Tournament

The Montclair State University's women's basketball team fell in the round of 16 of the 2018 NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championship, losing 51-40 to Amherst College. Kate Tobie led the Red Hawks with 11 points in the loss, while Katie Sire and Taylor Harmon each added 8 points in the setback. On behalf of the Montclair State University community, we congratulate the women's basketball team on its outstanding season that included its sixth consecutive New Jersey Athletic Conference Tournament championship and its sixth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, in addition to the fourth trip to the round of 16 in program history. Hakika DuBose '06

Hakika DuBose '06 proved herself to be a woman to watch after being recognized as the youngest female franchisor in the United States. When DuBose graduated from Montclair State majoring in dance, she went on to pursue a professional career within the industry. Feeling constricted by the cookie-cutter roles that she had to force herself into to succeed, she realized just how important her individuality truly was to her. DuBose stated, "I wanted to create my own new thing, I just didn't know what that was yet." It was time for a change of pace. [\[View full story\]](#)
