PSEG Foundation Supports STEM Education and Drives Diversity

The Montclair State University Foundation received a $525,000 grant from the PSEG Foundation in support of the "Building Transformative Pathways to Sustainability Program" through the University's PSEG Institute for Sustainability Studies (PSEG ISS) and the Clean Energy and Sustainability Analytics Center (CESAC) for Spring 2022 through August 2023. The most recent grant fuels the PSEG ISS Green Teams Program, which provides paid internships for undergraduate students to tackle sustainability challenges in communities across the state, along with CESAC's clean energy STEM education and outreach. 2022-23 Season Is Here!

Hard News in The Big Easy

For several years, Montclair State University Journalism and Television and Digital Media students have spent their spring break or summer vacations gaining the ultimate hands-on experience in news gathering while working under challenging conditions. The result of their hard work was a half-hour Montclair News Lab special titled “New Orleans | The Raging Storms” that is getting recognition from partner NBCU Academy, a journalism training and development program for professional and future journalists. Back to School Campaign: Support the Emergency Book Fund!

As we head into this academic year, once again our classrooms will be filled with eager students representing the next generation of scientists who will work to end climate change; artists who will enhance our cultural opportunities; nurses who will become our next-door heroes; and, teachers who will educate our children. Please support the Emergency Book Fund which provides assistance for students who would otherwise be unable to purchase needed textbooks due to financial hardship.

Cover letters continue to perplex some job-seekers, and with good reason. We often wonder if cover letters are really even necessary—this concern can be answered by the job's application requirements, as well as through your research of the employer/industry. If you realize you do have to write a cover letter,

The Muse offers an excellent primer on what not to write. Their 7 Cover Letter Words and Phrases That Are Costing You the Job is well worth the 3 min read.
